

World Book Day 2017 in Miss Aspey's class

This year, our class made a fantastic effort with our World Book Day costumes! We had children dressed as characters from Shakespeare stories, Harry Potter, Alice in Wonderland and many more! Throughout the day, we enjoyed lots of independent reading during 'Drop and Read' time. They also loved hearing Fantastic Mr Fox which was read to them in our wonderful new library by Mrs Bolam! As well as this, the children worked on writing a comparison between the film version and book version of Roald Dahl's Charlie and the Chocolate Factory.
